Thanks, Josh, for all the coordination. These talking points look great. Good luck today.

FYI. The "DEQ-ODFW Notes..." document is not for public distribution, but rather back pocket notes for Dave Jepsen and I.

Hi all. I have updated the documents put together for the May 14th with new information about biology (thanks, Dave!), thermal fluxes and loads (thanks, Ryan!), and so on. Disturbance info has been updated to address riparian specifically in addition to the general information.

Thanks,
Josh
